

CANYON PASSAGE

Canyon Passage (1946, colour) Blu-ray Region B

Directed by Jacques Tourneur. Starring Dana Andrews, Brian Donlevy and Susan Hayward, with Patricia Roc, Hoagy Carmichael, Ward Bond and Lloyd Bridges.

Canyon Passage is a story of settlers in the early, lawless days of the Old West and is set in Oregon in 1856. Logan Stuart (Dana Andrews) faces the challenges of business, a likeable but feckless gambling friend (Brian Donlevy) whose transgressions are leading him to the gallows, and two lovely women (Susan Hayward and Patricia Roc) fighting for the attention of the most eligible bachelor in town. Equally at home in this fast-paced story are the amiable Andy Devine and villain Ward Bond.

Special Features

Original aspect ratio 1.37:1 1080p AVC with LPCM 2.0 mono lossless audio

Subtitles in English for the deaf and hard of hearing

Universal Newsreels and Radio Programmes from 1946. 16 page illustrated booklet by Russell Cowe

Reversible inlay with alternative designs

Blu-ray Format Region B. Feature 92 mins. Cat No: BLU1007. RRP £16.99. BBFC: PG.

Release date: August 15th 2016. Available direct from www.panamint.co.uk

Scottish-based Panamint Cinema is one of the UK's longest standing producers of archive DVD and Blu-ray discs, and recently produced "Faces of Scotland" the first Scottish Blu-ray high definition disc. Established by Russell Cowe in 2001, the company has a catalogue of over 70 historical and nostalgic titles, covering life and work throughout the United Kingdom during the last century. There is also a growing catalogue of classic feature films.

Panamint Cinema works closely with film studios, the Nation's major film archives, including The British Film Institute, The Imperial War Museum Film Archive, The South West Film and Television Archive, The Royal Mail Film Library, the BBC and many independent film producers.

For further information, please contact Russell Cowe, details below.

Abercorn Schoolhouse, By Newton, West Lothian, EH52 6PZ
t: 0844 310 9394 e: cinema@panamint.co.uk w: www.panamint.co.uk